

Bernhardt and nothing else. We kept close to the Olympic Theater last week. The feminine interest in almost every production was astonishing. I saw the same with their chums or mothers that sat in front the same of the same together under her fingers in the way women are fond of, when the article threatens to burst its covering; boarded an Olive street car and their chums or mothers that sat in front parquet seats with their beaux on Monday night. And they went again to see "Cy-rano." Indeed, Coquelin had quite as much rano." Indeed, Coquelin had quite as much of the honors as Mine, Sarah. If he could only spend a month with us at the Imperial or some piace, the matinee girls would make an idol out of min and put up his funny, wrinkled "phus" with red candles in front of it on their dressing tables, before a week had passed,

Adolphus Busch nat in a box on Thursday, night, to be the recipient of several gracious bows from Bernhardt after curtain calls. The actress knows Mr. Busch and always on pays him a visit whenever she comes to St. Louis. That may explain her devotes to beer as a beverage. She drinks it—in c: Louis—to the exclusion of all else. Three young women whom I know wa!:

with great anxiety at the Southern one in night during the week to get a glimpse of in Bernhardt away from the footlights. They had the glimpse-also considerable disup-"Why, she's old and homely and has the hardest stare I ever saw," declared one of them. "Then her make-up was still onor much of it; and that added to the general unpleasantness. And as for that wonderful Parislan style-it was minus. She may be wearing out her old clothes on this American tour; but the costume was passe and ugly. Some sort of a plum-colored velvet gown, with trailing skirt and a three-quarters coat edged with dark fur, and cut like one of those old Russian blouses we were five years ago. Her hair was still

If Mrs. Dwyer had not told me this story herself, I should never in the world believe that it emanated from anything other than the funny papers. It has the real Filgende Blatter ring—but you shall judge for yourself.

One day last week, Mrs. Dwyer, who is Mrs. Elizabeth Dwyer, to be more precise, and who lives way out in Westminster place, felt that a dinner invitation which she had for that evening demanded a coiffure rather more elaborate than she usually wore. So early in the afternoon she paid a visit to a downtown halrdresser, ordered a shampoo, to be followed by a fancy "doing-up" of her hair. But when the maid finished operations and Mrz. Dwyer prepared to take her departure, she discovered that with the unusually high arrangements of puffs and rolls and curls and the like, her walking hat would not go on comfortably, but merely perched itself on her head and threatened to spoil the effect that it had taken two hours to produce.

Thereupon the lady seized a black lace scarf, which she had worn about her neck, hereupon the lady seized a black lace arf, which she had worn about her neck, covering; boarded an Olive street car and started westward.

She took a back seat, laid her hat—the trimmings of which protruded somewhat from their covering—in her lap, and prepared to peruse a late magazine on the homeward journey.

Presently along came the conductor. He paused beside Mrs. Dwyer, held out his hand for her fare, glanced downward and then shook his head as she proffered her 5 conts.

conts.

"Can't let you ride on this car, Madam," e said, firmly. "You'll have to get off at he next corner." preparing to ring the bell as he spoke.
Mrs. Dwyer was astounded. "Cant ride

e spoke.

wer was astounded. "Cant ride r?" she repeated. "What do you hy can't !?"

"th chickens or live stock of allowed to ride," he repeated, hp a nickel across the aisle with t froid.

"The state of the state with the state of th

Just to see what the matinee maiden wears these early days of March I looked over the Bernhardt audience last Wednesday. The maids were all there—rows of them. But the conviction was gradually forced on me that we don't care much what we wear to matinees. Any old thing will do. Our daytime toilets never have troubled us to any alarming degree, and so long as three-quarters coat efaced with dark fur, and cut like one of those old Russian blouses we work five years ago. Her hair was still tightly curied like little corlectorews, and perched on the extreme back of her head was a round fur cap, like a man's, made of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of sable, with a velvet crown and a bunch of the sable, and the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the cervator and ascendent sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable, with a velvet crown and a series of the sable, with a velvet crown and a series of the sable, with a velvet crown and a series of the sable, with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a velvet crown and a series of the sable with a sable w

Easter weddings and preparations for the same are occupying not a few prominent society personages these days of middle Lent. Miss Susan Teasdale is, I believe, to lead off the week, as her marriage to David Sharp Ralston is to take place on Foster Monday. Miss Teasdale has had the most extraordinary bad luck with the selection of her bridesmaids that can be imagined. She selected six early in the year—her younger sister, Miss Ada Teasdale, who is now hurrying home from Old Mexico, to be maid of honor; her elder sister. Harriet, and a cousin, Helen Teasdale, being the family bridesmaids; and the other three from her list of intimate girl friends. Since that time two of the girls, who live in other cities, have been compelled to decline the honor by reason of family bereavement, and the remaining maid is dangerously 21 with typhold fever. So these three places were filled by others, one of them to be a matron of honor, whose sudden death last week in Chicago has reduced the bride to the point of believing that she is being visited with unusual calamity. As the Teasdale family is a very large one, with many young women available for bridesmaid purposes. I venture to state that she will yet complete her original number with little difficulty.

The wedding is to be an evening affair at the Third Raptist Church, with all the difficulty.

The wedding is to be an evening affair at the Third Baptist Church, with all the customary accompaniments of music and flowers. One pretty feature will be two little pages—the small sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Willard Teasdale—who are to wear white velvet suits made in pictureque fashion, with big-plumed hats.

Mr. Raiston will take his brumette bride far West to Portland, Ore., to live. Or, rather, that city is to be their headquarters, as they expect to spend the coming year or two in almost constant travel.

ters, as they expect to spend the coming year or two in almost constant travel.

At last accounts the place of the Green-Thompson wedding had not been decided—whether church or house, I mean. The wedding in all events will be large. Miss Green has invited her two cousins, the Misses Marian and Julia Rumsey, daughters of the late Le-M. Rumsey; Miss Gale, who is now in New York; Miss Cook, Miss Strickland of Webster, who is the bride's cousin, and Miss Florence Hays of New York, to be her bridesmaids.

The von Phul-Michel wedding will be in the morning of April 10, at St. Ann's Church, Miss von Phul's best girl friends will surround her at the altar—Miss Celeste Michel, the bridegroom's sister, being maid of honor; while Miss Berthold, Miss Clemence Clark and Miss Mary Nidelet will be the remaining maids

For the Scullin-Clark wedding preparations are rife. The Scullins are just back from New York, and again in their Carondelet house, which is being freshened and redecorated for the great event. Both ceremony and reception are to be at the house. Marie Walsh and Nan Woodward.

As Miss Bessie Clark's marriage to Henry Bocckeler is not to be until April 24 the arrangements are by no means complete at this early date. Miss Clark has not settled on her maids, nor has the ceremony been definitely fixed for church or house.

From considerable observation this the-atrical season I am convinced that Miss Sallie Walsh bears off the palm when it comes to frequency of theater invitations. No girl in her set sees more plays and with more different—and I may add more elisible—men than this extremely interest-ing and always well-dressed young woman. She is the "theater girl" of the season.

Miss Belle Loader, who saw "L'Aiglon" on his native heath twice last summer during the Exposition, tells me that the production here does not compare for scenic duction here does not compare for scenic effects and general sumptuousness with the Paris ones. In the battlefield scene, for instance, there were troops and troops of soldiers, and all sorts of grandolse arrangements. Expense of transportation explains why we did not have the same in this farewell tour.

Two of the small Lenten diversions of last week were lunckeons, given by Mrs. Francis and Mrs. Henry S. Potter, Only about twelve guests were at each, and no

The Thornburgh-McMillan party is still in Florida, at Ormond. Mrs. Firmin Day. Mrs. Robert Filley's sister, came back from there last week, and is stopping in St. Louis, en route to her Minneapolis home for a fortnight. She will be with her niece, Mrs. Dave Walker, this week. Mrs. Norris Gregg has gone to Hot Springs for a stay of three weeks. Miss Anderson and Mr. Anderson of Chicago, sister and brother of Mrs. Fred Hawley, are with Mrs. Gregg.

SERENA LAMB.

INFORMAL ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Bon Ton Bowling Club was organ-ized last week by several South St. Louis ladies and gentlemen residing in the vicinity of Ninth and Lami. The charter mem bers are Messrs and Mmes. Acker. Shepp. Beck, Helb, Misses Legost, Stumpff, Smith and Kloepper and Messrs. Ben Westhus, Hermann Stumpff and Mr. Kloepper.

Miss Katherine O'Brien of Bayard avenue will entertain the Carvel Euchre Club at its next meeting.

The Palm Bowling Club gave an entertainment at the St. Louis Bowling Associa-tion Hall last Sunday evening. Bowling was carried on until 11 o'clock and a supper was then served. Those present were: Misses-

Edna Rascher, Anna Hotto, Eleanor Mensendick, Lizzle Kayser. Adele Horstman, May Konesky, Lulu Armstrong, Adele Knocke, Arthur Drochleman, Louis Maysack, Arthur Schulte, Henry Distelrath, Will Rascher, August Stuewe, Harry Kassing, Will Horstman.

Mrs. George Burgelt of No. 3559 South Jefferson avenue, entertained at her home last Friday afternoon in honor of her birth-day. Those present were: Mesdames—

T. Higgins, O. Schultes, E. Puby, A. Becker, C. Kahman, G. Borgelt. Misses—
Minnie Ahrens,
Hotense Mumps
Messieurs—
J. Spam,
E. Koenig,

The Kappa Gamma Chi Musical and Literary Society of the Grand Avenue Baptist Church held its regular bimonthly meeting at the residence of Mr. Mattheny. No. 1828 North Jefferson avenue, last Tuesday evening. The programme included recitations and vocal solos rendered by Misses Blanche Dye, Gladys Kellog, May Richards and other club members.

WHO WILL BECOME

THE BRIDE OF

MISS_MARIE VON PHUL

Fred A. Leightner of Compton Heights gave a stag party at his home last Tuesday evening in honor of his twenty-third birthday. The walls of his home were decorated for the occasion with drawings of new St. Louis, as it will appear in 1986, and every guest gave nis opinion on the World's Fair. Those present were:

John Wippermann,

Arthur Kelley,

Ed McGinn,

Doctor Phillips,

Fred McGuire,

Mafflitt,

O. Tamm.

Wedding Invitations engraved at Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway and Locust, are done by the most expert engravers in America. They are used by the most fashionable circles.

The eighth dance of the Sin Claire Informal Club was given last Wednesday evening. Those present were:

Misses— Kelmie Mutrux, Natalie Geisel, Nellie Wagoner, Stella Griffith. Ruth Dobyne, M. Griffith, Wilson of Wash-ington, Ind.; Edua Clement, Pearl Terverburg of Washington, Ind.; Nettle Jordan, Julia Swartz, Burge, Suest, Jule Strong,
Quinian,
Maude Smith,
Olga Bates,
Bessie Hinchman,
C. L. Du Laney,
S. Adele Young,
Jessie Dobyne,
Urma McDannold,
Ruth Jordan,
Alyce Johnson,
Luella Fleishbein,
Mesdames— Burge, R. V. Puthoff, Genevieve McCarten, Grace Miller,

Lily Sommers, Emma Hall, M. Widdicombe, Florence Groves, Grace C. Herndon, Maude Magner. Walton. Sam Bridges, Tenneson Gall, Arthur Fruede George Vogt, J. G. Lee, C. R. Jones, Charles Williams, Walton, Fred Wright, Durward Jordan, Gus Biston, W. B. Daniels, R. P. Gill.

M. R. Pence,
Geo. H. Cottrill,
T. Lee Mills,
F. L. Nelson,
J. H. Carroll,
C. H. Whitehill,
P. C. Raynon C. H. Whitehill,
P. C. Beynon,
D. A. Fletcher,
Frank Meyer,
J. W. Carron,
C. W. Johnson,
L. F. Mitchell,
W. E. Yerkes,
D. F. Oberbeck, Jr.,
L. J. Wilson. Kill Kunn,
E. L. Dorn,
F. M. Norris,
J. C. Walter,
H. W. West,
George B. Fahey,
F. W. Schulenberg,
F. W. Rapp,
F. P. Conway,

A nice Easter hat awaits you at Rosen heim's, 515 Locust.

Miss Carrie Conrad entertained at her home last Monday evening with an informal dance. The guests were:

Misses—
Blanch Philippi, Rosalie Muegge, Mausie Krutsch, Elste Diehl, Maud Maguire, Maud Magner, Lillian Verte.

Julia Conrad Lottie Krenning, Maud Maguire, Maud Magner, Julia Conrad, Ora Magner, Dora Wettroth, Emma Hoppe, Lillian Vette. Edna Hannsky, Lula Teutenberg, Lulu Kell, Emma Hassebarth, Messieurs— Otto Edler, Ed Philippi, Ferd Biston, Kuntz Ed Rehage, Will Hoppe, Harry Meise, Harry Fredricks, Otto Stoffregen, Eugene Ringlu, Walter Krenning, Charles Becker,

Kuntz, Schumaker, Fred Teutenberg, Oscar Conrad, Edgar Russe,

Mesdames-

C. C. Herndon

Bruen,

Charles Becker. Mrs. E. Frost entertained at her home last Tuesday afternoon to celebrate her birthday. The afternoon was spent in dan-cing and the rendition of musical selections. se present were:

Mesdames-Wm. Hoeltge, Ernst Eberlein, Gol. Carrick, Wm. McNeemer, Gol. Angermueller, Misses— Emma Fehl, Lottle Hoeltge, Edw. Lambrichts, F. Kroeger, F. Merkel. Kroeger, Merkel, Bodawine, Frances Forst. Agathina Forst.

Mrs. V. Knapp of No. 2531 St. Vincent avenue gave a children's party, Monday afternoon, for her little daughter, Vera, in honor of her seventh birthday. The table was decorated in yellow and blue. The afternoon was spent very pleasantly in games, and when refreshments were served each child was presented with a souvenir consisting of a bag of candy tied with dainty ribbons.

Miss Fannye Long entertained the F. and T. Club at her home on North Market street, Friday evening, with music, recita-tions and dancing, after which refreshments were served. Those present were:
Misses—
Mabel Ibers. Nellie Brown Nellie Brownfield,

Erna Richter,
Lu Edna Dawson,
Anna Gilchrist,
Eva Markman,
Messleurs—
Zimmerman,
Ed Meyer,
Ed Walsh,
L. Forbes,
Will Foster, L. Forbes, Will Foster, Percy Smith,

James Avery, M. Markman, Moore Moore, C. H. Whitehill, C. A. Kelly.

Berrie Hovelman, Thais Magrane, Nellie Long.

Mr. F. Thon of South Michigan avenue, with the assistance of his daughters, entertained a number of friends last Sunday afternoon and evening in honor of his fifty-sixth birthday. At 6 o'clock a supper was served, after which musical selections were rendered both on plano and graphophone. Among the many guests present were:

graphophone. Among the many gupresent were:

Messieurs and Mesdames—
Ed Maurer,
Misses—
Lillian Warner,
Lizzie Thon,
Clara Kuehnhenn,
V. Nugent,
Clara Thon,
Dora Spilker,
Hattle Schwanengel,
Pauline Thon.

Kessieurs—
George Scholl,
F. Bangert,
F. Schwanengel,
F. Vandervoort,
F. Thon, Jr.,
Gus Foerster,
J. Bangert.

Mrs. H. A. Diamont of No. 4229 West Belle place gave a cup and saucer shower to Miss Jeanette Desberger, who is en-gaged to Mr. Edward Sicher, last Thursday afternoon. The guests participated in a number of entertaining games in the poster room. The prizes were won by Misses Leah Cohan, Jeanette Jacobs, Rose Spitz and

Sole Agents in St. Louis

--FOR--

Connelly Turbans.

L. ACKERMAN, Manager.

. . . Grand . . . Millinery Opening

> MONDAY AND TUESDAY. March 18, March 19.

Our grand millinery opening is always the most important event in the millinery world of St. Louis. This season we will have on exhibition the grandest collection of imported pattern hats and high-class millinery we have ever shown.

YOU ARE MOST CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND.

Mrs. Hattle Longan. At 4 a clock the ladies entered the dining-room, which was decorated in Oriental style, and before partaking of a dainty repast were presented with souvenirs. Miss Desberger received some pretty designs in china. Among those present were:

Missee.

ent were:
Misses—
Ray Abrams,
Rose Spitz,
Eva Landecker,
Jean He Jacobs,
Rebecca Untario Eva Landecker, Mamie Renard,
Jean tte Jacobs, Lilian Kaufman,
Rebecca Unterberger, Mamie Speyer,
Mesdames Mesdames-

Lena Puffes, Mrs. A. Menke, Mrs. H. Longam.

Tuesday evening a surprise party to gentlemen was given in honor of Mr. Louis Wirth at his home. No. 213 Gano avenue. Euchre was played until 11 o'clock, after which came music by Messrs. Aurien Foegeding and Steideman. Those present were his schoolmates and members of the N. St. L. T. V. Drum Corps.

The guests were:

Messieurs-Louis Strecher, Albert Steiner, E. O. Harrs, C. Reinhardt, O. Warmbold, F. Schmidt, E. Schmidt, L. Klefaber, O. Klefaber, C. Raeder, L. Wirth. Ed Strecher, F. Shirm, F. Vombey, T. Koester, B. Oehler, A. Foegeding, E. Stohr, Mrs. R. D. Smart and Mrs. C. E. Swing-ley gave a birthday dinner to the Ladles' Aid Society of the Cook Avenue M. E. Church Friday afternoon. The officers pres-ent were: Mrs. Mary Goodfellow, president; Mrs. William Bryan, vice president; Mrs. Frank Hill, treasurer; Mrs. John Caruthers, secretary.

CARD PARTIES.
Artistic Silverwares, Mermod & Jaccard's. Mrs. H. Wittkopf of No. 4522 College ave-

Mrs. H. Wittkopf of No. 4522 College avenue entertained with a euchre last Saturday evening. Those present were:

Messieurs and Mesdames—
H. Pohlmann,
H. Sicher,
H. Weber,
H. Wittkopf,
L. A. Grolinek,
Misses—
L. M. Jost, Messieurs—
H. L. Schaefer,
A. Esslinger.

Miss Mabel Teahan entertained the Carvel Euchre Club at her home last Friday even-ing. Those present were: Ing. Those present were:

Katherine O'Brien,
Mabel Teahan,
Olive Byrne,
Laura Sherman,
Amanda Knobelock,
T. McLaughlin,
Mrs. N. Brush,
Mrs. Geo. Gundecker,
Frank Clairmont,
J. Meinhardt,

All the Swagger hats come from Rosen-helm's, 515 Locust. Miss Ida Parmelce of Page boulevard entertained the Hiya Euchre Club Wednesday evening. Those present were:

Messleurs— Misses— Misses—
Paul Chamberlain, Sadie Young, Stephen Guilfoyle, Al Picker, Susie Doehr, Flo Bowman, O'Leary, Dot Kaiser, Earl Parmelee. Hizzebeth Robeson, Earl Parmelee. Hesses were awarded Misses Rothschild and Parmelee, Messrs, Kaufmann and Chamberlain; consolation, Al Picker. tertained the Hiva Euchre Club Wednesday

The Once-a-Week Euchre Club met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Katherine O'Brien, on Bayard avenue. Cards were played until 10:30, after which refreshments were served. The prizes were awarded to Misses Laura Sherman, Olive Byrne, Amanda Knobelock and Messrs, L. Meinhardt, John Knobelock and G. M. Showman, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Evill of No. 4114

Lindell boulevard entertained at cards last Friday evening. An informal dance followed the game. Among the guests were:
Misses—
Corinne Erskine,
Daisy Bond.
Grace Borroughs
(La Crosse Wis.)
Messleurs—
Messleurs—
Messleurs—
Klatherine Overstreet,
Alberta Frazler,
Messleurs—
Niederlander,

Daisy Bond,
Grace Borroughs
(La Crosse Wis.)

Messleurs—
Al Lederman,
Tom Murphy,
Ed Brent,
Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Overstreet,
Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Overstreet,
Mr. and Mrs. Raiph Niederlander. Carl Niederlander,

Tom Corn, Doctor Mannard, The Fortnightly Euchre Club had a pleas-ant evening Tuesday at the home of Miss Adele Armbruster of Dolman street. The

J. A. Michael,
Misses—
Gertia Scheffer,
Barbara Armbruster,
Wesdama Fills Armbruster,
Mesdama Fills Armbruster,

Mesdame Ella Armbruster. Mesdame Ella Armbruster.

Messleurs and Mesdames—
Silas Gregory. Harry Heinemann.
John G. Crozier.

Prizes were won by John G. Crozier and Miss Rose Armbruster. Dancing was indulged in and refreshments were served.
The hostess sang.

The Misses Hamig entertained the 1903
Euchre Club at their home on St. Ferdinand avenue, Thursday evening, The prizes were won by Misses Mildred Margenan, Nannie C. Davis and Mollie Cantwell, Messrs, J. Frain, R. J. Hamig and Will
Jones. The others present were:
Misses—
Emma B. Hamig,
Katle A. Davis,
Nellie M. Davis,
Nellie M. Davis,
Nellie M. Carthy, Messieurs—

Messieurs— D. B. Frain, Harry Margenan, Orlie Decker, John Smith, Louis H. Hamig, George Keefe, McKirkin, Samuel Grote.

The Martha Washington Euchre Club was entertained by Miss Ida Parmelee, Thursday afternoon. The prizes were won by Misses Mabel Dorsey, Edith Julian, Edna Dorsey and Ethel Marcy, Those present Dorsey and Ethel were:
Misses—
Nel Thorn,
Sadie Young,
Edith Julian,
Ruth Garnet,
Jennie Crofton,
Elizabeth Crofton,
Elizabeth Crofton,
Wabel Dorsey,
Victoria Ernst,
Ella Ernst, Susie Hearne, Ethel Marcy, Daisy Eastin, Jennie Belding Zeller, Gartha Blakemore, Virgie Lewis, Katherine Little, Elizabeth Robeson Ida Parmelee,

Miss Perpetua Griefield gave a card party last Saturday afternoon to her school friends. Prizes for the game were awarded to Miss McKietle, Miss Elenor Webener and Miss Ella O'Connor. Among those present were:

Elenor Webener Elenor Webener,
Susie Iblier,
Margaret Byrne,
Ella O'Connor,
Myrtle Wenneker,
Ella Kietle. Misses— Claude Grandjean, Edna McNamara, Ethel Mae Griefield, Olinda Havebeck, Oulda Macklin, WEDDINGS.

Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway & Locust Miss Emilie Collandt of North St. Louis was married March 12, to Mr. Charles Schweickert, also of South St. Louis, The couple have taken a trip to the Pacific Coast, and will be home to their friends aft-er April 15.

James A. Snell of No. 4376 Finney avenue and Miss Anna Drost, were married in few friends attended the ceremony, which was performed by a Justice of the Peace. The bridegroom is a son of the late Captain J. W. Snell of Monroe County. The young couple will start housekeeping next week at No. 3026 Minnesota avenue.

Miss Lillie E. Hunter and Mr. John Wil-mot Mahen were quietly married on Thurs-day. March 14, at 5 o'clock, in the chapel of Christ Church Cathedral, only members of the two families being present.

On Monday evening Miss Tessie D. Ben-jamin and Mr. Soi Hammer will be married at the residence of the bride's father, M. Benjamin. Owing to the recent death of the bride's sister, Mrs. Phil Paradise, in New York City, the wedding will only be wit-nessed by the relatives of the bride and bridegroom.

CLUBS.

Just received beautiful silver candelabra. Low prices. Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway and Locust.

There was a large gathering of ladies members of the French Salon held at Hotel Beers on Friday. Conversational sketches of the life and analysis of the works of Alphonse Daudet were the subject of the lecture by Louis E. Brenque. Among the members noticed in the drawing-room were: Mesdames—
J. Lindsay,
J. M. Harney, F. Roberts,
Misses—
Ella Cochrane,
Mary Kimball,
Estelle Bushman,
Didi Kimball,

The "Coteric Club" was entertained last Wednesday evening by the Misses Keevil at their home, on Cook avenue, with a euchre, prizes being won by Miss Dainy Keevil and Edith Lebens and Messrs. Kramer and McIlvaine, respectively.

The parlors and halls were decorated with bunting, the tally cards each bearing a bow of the club colors.

During the latter part of the evening a musical programme was rendered, the members contributing, this being followed by an informal dance.

informal dance.
Among the members present were;
Misses—
Esther Hoerr,
Lillian Keevil,
Edith Lebens,
Jennie Robinson,
Daisy Keevil, Messfeurs—
Sam L. Owens,
Arthur J. Blaney,
Jesse G. Kramer,
Lloyd Keevil,
Spencer Morten, Margaret Backet, Grace Gilmore, Bertha Wannen-vetsch.

The Twentieth Century Girls met Wedn day at the home of Miss Gertie Rebena No. 3117 South Jefferson avenue, to spe the afternoon in a clubable way. There we singing and playing, ending with a day repast, in which the club's colors were a forgotten. The others:

Missez—
Helen De Werthern, Clara Hell, Koken.

MUSICALS.

Fine Diamonds. Mermod & Jaccard's. There will be a musical given for the benefit of Rose Hill Chapter, O. E. S., at Rose Hill Hall, Maple and Hamilton ave-nues, on Tuesday evening, March 19.

A surprise party in the nature of an impromptu musical, was tendered Mr. James A. Morris. No. 1524 Euclid avenue, on Thursday evening last, all in attendance participating in the social features, while the host

